Background Information

The Government Flying Service (GFS), the successor of Royal Hong Kong Auxiliary Air Force, is a department of the Government of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region employing 260 civil servants responsible for flight operations, maintenance and administration. GFS provides 24 hours, seven days a week, emergency helicopter and fixed-wing flying support such as search and rescue (SAR) mission air ambulance, firefighting, and law enforcement agencies' operations, inside Hong Kong Flight Information Region (VHHK) and also area of 400 nautical mile radius of Hong Kong.

GFS also consist of their own engineering section which is an approved HKAR 145 maintenance organization, well supports the flying and operational activities. It provides virtually all the aircraft and equipment maintenance services from within its well-equipped and modern hangar and workshops.

In this visit, Participants will have the opportunity to tour the GFS facility, understand more about the state of art of technology not only in aviation, but also the SAR equipment and have a glimpse of their daily operations.

Charges

Tour is free of charge; attendees are responsible for transportation costs to and from Tung Chung MTR to Hong Kong Government Flying Service Headquarters. Purchasing of GFS souvenir is up to individual discretion.
